NATIONAL GUARD WINS MEET BY AN OVERWHELMING SCORE

Fifth Cavalry Are Second and the Twentieth Infantry Third--Was Well Managed in Every Way.

N. G. H.—86 points: 12 firsts, 8 seconds, 2 thirds.
Fifth Cavalry—17 points: 1 first, 3 seconds, 3 thirds.
Twentieth Infantry—15 points: 3 seconds and 6 thirds.
Marines—8 points: 1 first and 3 thirds.

INDIVIDUAL SCORES.

McCandless, N. G. H., 24; 3 firsts and 3 seconds. Rice, N. G. H., 23; 4 firsts and 1 second. En Sue, N. G. H., 15; 1 first, 3 seconds and 1 third. Carey, N. G. H., 10; 2 firsts. Williams, N. G. H., 5; O'Sullivan, N. G. H., 5; Notestine, Fifth Cavalry, 5; all 1 first. Laughmiller, Twentieth Infantry, 5; Peterson, Twentieth Infantry, 4; Butler, N. G. H., 4; Foley, Fifth Cavalry, 3; Breen, Fifth Cavalry, 3; Lieutenant Chilton, Twentieth Infantry, 3; McDonald, Fifth Cavalry, 2; Connor, U. S. M. C., 1½; Sorenson, Twentieth Infantry, 1; Beverly, Fifth Cavalry, 1; Rowland, Twentieth Infantry, 1; Boots, U. S. M. C., 1; Keeshan, U. S. M. C., 1½. And then there were the nine points made in the tug-of-war.

A thoroughly well-conducted field and track meet was the result of the Military Athletic Association's efforts at the league grounds yesterday afternoon. Each event was brought off promptly on time, the weather was clear, if a trifle warm, and, although there was not nearly such a large crowd as was expected, there were enough spectators to cheer lustily for their favorites and make a noise like encouraging some of the professional soldiers, who were soon left way in the rear by their amateur opponents.

McCandless and Rice were easily the champions of the meet. They both worked indefatigably all through the afternoon, and every event they went into, they were sure to get the first place between them.

Strangely enough, the only event which En Sue won was the standing broad jump. He proved to be a great adept at this stunt and easily outjumped all the others. Rice won all the sprints, as well as the 220-yard hurdles. His hundred-yard race was a magnificent exhibition of running. The track was grass of the short and slippery variety, something to which Bill is not well used, and yet he made the distance in 10.15 seconds. Bill is getting to be a finer athlete than ever. If he ever gets pressed on a cinder track, under auspicious circumstances, it is probable that he will do it in 10-flat and perhaps under. He shows all the signs of becoming one of the great sprinters of the country.

Sprints Were Exciting.

The principal excitement of the day was over the sprints and hurdle races. These were all closely contested, and kept people guessing as to the winners until the very last part. But the N. G. H. letters were always in front and usually second as well.

One feature of the afternoon was the terrific throw of the baseball made by Johnny Williams. He threw so far that the ball actually hit the grandstand, and the judges had to make a guess as to what the exact distance was. They put it down at 386 feet 9 inches, which was probably just about correct.

Tug-of-War Easy.

The tug-of-war was exciting enough while it lasted. In the preliminary heats, the National Guard forfeited to the Fifth Cavalry. It took the Marines just twenty seconds to yank the Twentieth Infantry over the line. Then, in the finals, they took two seconds longer to do the same thing to the Fifth Cavalry.

This was one of two firsts that were not captured by the N. G. H. team. The other one was the hammer throw, which was won in great style by Notestine of the Fifth Cavalry. This muscular man has the art of swinging the hammer down to a fine point, and easily outdistanced all competitors with the remarkably good throw of ninety feet and seven inches.

A Successful Meet.

The meet was a good success in every way. The gate receipts, while not large, were sufficient to defray expenses, and all the officials did their parts to perfection. Lorrin Andrews, as clerk of the course, had, perhaps, the hardest time of anybody, although Johnny Marcellino, as announcer, ran him a close second.

Dr. Hand was a very able referee while the officers who acted as judges knew their business thoroughly and the result was one of the best conducted meets ever seen on the Islands. Some of the events were a trifle wearisome and it might be suggested that a relay race would well take the place of some of the longer events, such as the standing broad jump.

The official results were as follows: High Jump—McCandless, N. G. H.; Foley, Fifth Cavalry; Keeshan and Connor, U. S. M. C., tied for third place. Height, 5 ft. 5½ in.

Fifth-yard Dash—Rice, N. G. H.; En Sue, N. G. H.; McDonald, Fifth Cavalry. Time, 5.3-5 seconds.

Halm-mile Run—Carey, N. G. H.; Peterson, Twentieth Infantry; Sorenson, Twentieth Infantry. Time, 2 mins. 18.1-4 secs.

Baseball Throwing—Williams, N. G. H., 385 ft. 9 in.; Butler, N. G. H., 348

ft. 6 in.; Beverly, Fifth Cavalry, 345 ft. 7 in.

Hundred-yard Dash—Rice, N. G. H.; En Sue, N. G. H.; McDonald, Fifth Cavalry. Time, 10.1-5 seconds.

Standing Broad Jump—En Sue, N. G. H.; Rice, N. G. H.; Connor, U. S. M. C. Distance, 9 ft. 8.1-2 in.

Running Broad Jump—McCandless, N. G. H.; En Sue, N. G. H.; Laughmiller, Twentieth Infantry. Distance, 18 ft. 11.1-2 in.

Quarter-mile Run—Carey, N. G. H.; Breen, Fifth Cavalry; Peterson, Twentieth Infantry. Time, 59 seconds.

120-yard Hurdles—McCandless, N. G. H.; Laughmiller, Twentieth Infantry; Rowland, Twentieth Infantry. Time 19.2-5 seconds.

Throwing the Hammer—Notestine, Fifth Cavalry; McCandless, N. G. H.; Boots, U. S. M. C. Distance, 90 ft. 7 in.

Shot Put—O'Sullivan, N. G. H., 36 ft. 6.1-4 in.; Butler, N. G. H., 33 ft. 10.1-2 in.

220-yard Hurdles—Rice, N. G. H.; McCandless, N. G. H.; Laughmiller, Twentieth Infantry. Time, 33 seconds.

220-yard Run—Rice, N. G. H.; Lieutenant Chilton, Twentieth Infantry; En Sue, N. G. H. Time, 27 seconds.

Officials: Dr. E. H. Hand, referee; Colonel Jones, N. G. H.; Major Wadham, Twentieth Infantry; Captain Ramsey, U. S. M. C.; Lieutenant James, Fifth Cavalry; judges: Lieutenant Sheridan, starter; Lester Petrie, P. M. McMahon and B. Clark, timers; John Marcellino, announcer; Lorrin Andrews, clerk of the course.

MORE DOPE ABOUT THE WALKING RACE

Entries for the Kalakaua avenue walking race close at the store of Wall, Nichols Co. at nine o'clock on Saturday morning next. There is no entrance fee and a long list of valuable prizes is being made up for competitors in the race.

The elimination race will take place on the afternoon of Sunday, December 12, and the race proper will be held a week later. All entrants will compete in the elimination race and those making the distance in less than nineteen minutes will be eligible to take part in the race the following week. There will be prizes offered for the elimination race as well as for the championship event.

The distance of the course is about a mile and three-quarters and the race was won last year by Dick Sullivan in something close to sixteen minutes.

On December 19 the fat men's and veterans' races will be decided and these interesting events will undoubtedly prove as popular as was the case last year.

The races will start at the junction of King street and Kalakaua avenue and will finish at the Waikiki Inn.

The prize list will be opened this week and it is expected that the local merchants will support liberally one of the cleanest and most sporting events of the entire year.

A number of walkers are training quietly for the event and entries will come in thick and fast this week. Antonio Kaoo, the marathon champion, has decided to try his hand at the toe-and-heel game and will be among the starters. If he walks as well as he runs he should about land the first prize.

Other probable competitors are Dick Sullivan, last year's winner, Wilson Feagler, Dal Fahy, Cheatham, Gomes, Ayres, Gibson, McTigue, Boisse, Biart, McCandless, H. Chillingworth, Freitas, Jack Denham, Johnson, Wells, Nelson, Hopper and Featherstonhaugh.

TENNIS CHAMPION KILLED.

CHICAGO, November 16.—Kreigh Collins, one of the best-known tennis players in this country, tonight was run down by a street car and almost instantly killed.

Collins possibly was the greatest tennis player ever produced in the West, and held the western championship in 1897, 1898, 1900, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905 and 1906.

Paired with L. Harry Waidner he won the western doubles title in 1902, 1903 and 1905, and in 1904 he won the same honors with Ray D. Little of New York as his partner.

In 1903 Collins and Waidner won the all-comers doubles in the East and in 1902 they were runners-up in the same event.

Collins led the western championship to Nat Emerson of Cincinnati in 1907 and since then has taken no part in tournament play because of eye trouble.

THE FOURTEEN CUPS PRESENTED BY LOCAL MERCHANTS AS PRIZES TO THE WINNERS IN YESTERDAY'S M. A. A. TRACK AND FIELD MEET. THE CHALLENGE CUP STANDS IN THE CENTER.

FIRST WREN RACE SAILED TODAY

Four of Tom Day's Pets to Race Over the Harbor Course This Morning.

For the first time since sea wrens began to make their appearance in Honolulu there will be a race for wrens only today. The race will start from the Myrtle Boat Club at half-past ten, promptly. The race is under the auspices of the Hawaii Yacht Club and the regular regatta committee will act as starters and judges.

The course will be across the usual starting line to the spar buoy, leaving to port, thence to the bell buoy, leaving to starboard, to the spar buoy, to the quarantine dolphin, leaving to starboard, to the makai marine dolphin, leaving to starboard, out to the bell buoy again and back across the starting line in an opposite direction to the start.

In running before the wind, boats must keep in the channel and, in beating to windward, must not go outside the channel far enough on any tack so that they leave an approaching mark to leeward.

There will be four wrens in the race. Commodore Wilder's boat as yet unnamed, Dancing Sally, Roaring Glimet and Galloping Mary. They have all been fixed up for the race. Especially the Mary of loping proclivities who has been hauled out and thoroughly pot-leaded all over.

Light Wind Probable.

The chances for a good breeze are not anything to dream about at the time of writing. It looks very much like a light southerly breeze, although there is always a possibility of the trade winds waking up and blowing their best for a change.

With four little craft, each exactly the same in dimensions and sail area and practically the same in ballast, there should be a most interesting race. Unless the wind is as fluky as it was two Sundays ago, there is no doubt that the most skilful skipper will win the race. There is every chance of a repetition of the Koloa-Ivy match race in which both boats came over the line with only a difference of inches between them.

Mixed Racer Later.

In the afternoon there will be a race under the auspices of the Honolulu Yacht Club. In this event Pearls and wrens will mix and it will be interesting to see whether skipper Stone can repeat his recent performance of tooling past the Pearl in going to windward.

It will be one of the greatest day's sport ever seen on the harbor in the sailing line and the enthusiasts will be out in plenty to watch the races from the club lanais.

ANOTHER WORLD'S RECORD.

ATLANTA, Georgia, November 9.—Chevrolet, driving a Model Seventeen, won the Coca-Cola trophy race of two hundred miles, his time in the first half being eighty-four minutes, eight seconds and seventy-one hundredths, last half in eighty-two minutes, thirty-six seconds and seventy-seven hundredths, total time for race one hundred sixty-six minutes, forty-eight seconds and forty-seven hundredths, averaging seventy-two miles per hour. Nearest competitor six miles behind.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE BEST OBTAINABLE.

This remedy has no superior as a cure for colds, croup and whooping cough.

It has been a favorite with the mothers of young children for almost forty years.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take.

It not only cures colds and grip, but prevents their resulting in pneumonia.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

The funeral of the late Alexander Morrison will take place from the K. of P. hall at half-past two this afternoon. All members of Honolulu Aerie No. 140 are requested to meet at their hall, K. of P. building, at 1:45.

BASEBALL BINGLES

By "The Old Fan."

The J. A. Cs. made it almost a cinch for the championship of the Oahu league by winning last Sunday's game from the Dragonets. The Japs have played racehorse ball all through the series, having won all their games through superior team work.

That clever captain, manager and clean sportsman, Jack Notley, can not be given too much credit for the efficient manner in which he has whipped his team into championship form. The genial Jack is always on the coaching lines, encouraging his players and at the same time seeking out the weak spots in his opponents' lineup. Here's to you, Jack, old boy. If all the managers worked as hard in the interest of the game as Notley does, the public would get a better run for their money.

The Drags made a hard fight to stop the Japs in their flight pennantward, but their efforts were in vain.

En Sue, at second, put up his usual star game, making several spectacular stops of drives that looked like sure safe ones. But at the bat the King of Spain sure had him punching the atmosphere.

Sing Chong, the hustling little captain of the Drags, by his clever baserunning brought home the only two runs that crossed the plate.

The Drags were badly handicapped by the absence of Che Bui, behind the bat. The old boy has been making bad tackles in football and from his crippled condition got a shade the worst of it. When Che Bui is in condition, he is a tower of strength to his team. He played only a fair game at first.

Ah Toon, who was receiving for Apau, seemed to have a bad case of "diamond fright" and let two runs come in which won the game for the Japs.

Josiah the Kalihi first baseman drew a couple of fines by his useless kicking.

The Kalihis have the material for a good strong team but are sadly in need of a manager.

"Scrappy" Hays put up a swell game at second besides starting with the stick. He connected for a two-sacker and a homer. Keep it up Scrappy and leave that grouch at home.

And speaking of grouches "Eaving Red" Gaw had his usual with him and didn't cause any sensations by his playing at third corner, although the Red One did rap out a peach of a two-bagger.

Franco played a "smart" game at second for the J. A. C. They surely have a strong infield, although Augie Dreier was a bit off last Sunday.

Well, we will surely have some classy ball when the St. Louis team and the J. A. Cs. hook up for the past season series. Get in the game, Japs, and show those big leaguers that we are there.

Sport Notes

The Ewa track meet results on Thanksgiving Day were: 50-yard dash, M. Fernandez, 7 seconds; 100-yard dash, Joe Elias, 12 seconds; shot put, George Clark, 36 feet; hammer throw, H. B. Tretheway, 94 feet; 5-mile race, H. Cordeiro, 33 mins. 30 secs.

Ewa and Waipahu played a football game at Ewa on Thanksgiving Day. The result was a tie, no score. Honey, Gedge and Joe Elias were the stars of the day. There was terrific excitement all through the game and the playing was mostly open, with some very successful forward passes.

There will be a tennis tournament at Ewa starting today. There is a record list of entries and the handicappers have done good work in figuring out the various "setbacks."

This morning at ten o'clock, W. H. Biddell, the Australian life-saving expert, will give an exhibition from the floor of the Heanani Boat Club. Everybody is welcome to come and see this exhibition. The upper lanai will be reserved for the use of ladies.

The Wall, Nichols baseball team will be out in force this morning at nine o'clock to practise at Athletic Park. Next Sunday they have a game on with the champion Fusos.

Do not smile when reading the following Wall, Nichols lineup: Mariposa is going to pitch, the others are: Ah Toon, cf; A. K. Vienna, 1b; Willie Jordan, 2b; Charlie Jones, 3b; Arata Okasaki, ss; Eddie Iwashita, rf; S. Gun, cf; Mori Saki, lf.

The Kewalos recently celebrated their winning the championship of the Atkinson league last season with a grand banquet at the home of M. P. Rego. Mayor Fern, donor of the cup, was present, as also Johnnie Anderson who made a very effective speech in Chinese. Everybody had a good time and the team looks forward to winning further championships.

MISS HALL LOSES TO MRS. COULTER

(Continued from Page One.) Miss Hall was not up to her usual form, according to those who saw her play when she earned the championship. Some of her back-hand strokes were misdirected and went outside, while she netted at critical times. But her playing was characterized by keen judgment of cuts and lobs, the former play being the one most used when she was in a favorable position for a return.

Yesterday's defeat does not deprive Miss Hall of the championship of the Hawaiian Islands, as she holds the title for one year, and whatever games in special tournaments or otherwise that she loses does not affect her right to the title, until the next regular championship series.

The spectators were treated to as classy tennis as has ever been witnessed on the Beretania's excellent courts. The clubhouse veranda and lawns were crowded, while autos lined the curbs on both streets. At the conclusion of the first game, Mr. Edwin Gee, the tennis champion of the Islands, presented Mrs. Coulter with a trophy of the occasion, and to Miss Hall presented a box of American Beauty roses, making a presentation speech in each instance.

In the doubles following, Mrs. Coulter and Mr. Gee opposed Miss Hall and F. E. Steere. The latter were defeated in two straight sets, 6-2, 6-3. In this game the women were prominent in all the plays, and it seemed that the duty of doing much of the skillful returns devolved upon them. Both the gentlemen, however, played a good game.

KALUHIMOKU IN TWO ACCIDENTS

A hurry-up call was sent in for the patrol wagon, and it was driven as rapidly as possible to the scene of the accident. The wounded man was placed in the wagon on a stretcher and the wagon started for the hospital, going up Punchbowl street. The horses were being driven at a gallop, the driver sounding his gong to clear the way.

As the wagon approached Beretania avenue, Punahou car 16 was coming in. Punchbowl street at this point is a dangerous place, on account of its narrowness and the impossibility of the drivers of vehicles on Beretania and Punchbowl street seeing one another.

In this case, according to the statements of the officers who were on the wagon, the driver was ringing his own gong and consequently could not hear the street car bell. Just as he debouched onto Beretania avenue, he saw the car and attempted to avoid a collision by swinging the wagon around in the direction the street car was traveling. But it was too late. The car struck the wagon and the off horse, old Harry, the wounded man was hurled to the floor of the wagon, while the horses leg was broken in several places. It was necessary to shoot the poor beast later, as his injuries could not be cured. Harry was the big, black horse that for so long has been driven to the police wagon. His death caused a feeling of sorrow among the police, who had a good deal of affection for the faithful old horse. Harry's mate, Pat, was also injured to some extent, but not seriously.

When the smash came, Stewart, the driver, was thrown out of his seat and on to the car, his foot being smashed in the mix-up. As he was thrown his head thumped that of Police Officer Keawe, rendering the latter insensible. One of the two trustees in the wagon was also hurt.

That the accident was not much more serious is due to the presence of mind of Stewart, who, when he saw that there was bound to be a collision between the wagon and the car, swung the former so as to make the blow a glancing one.

The police wagon was not damaged, except for the breaking of the whiffletree.

It was reported at the Queen's Hospital last night that Kaluhimoku was in a very critical condition. It seems doubtful whether or not he will recover.

WILL THE JAPS BE CHAMPIONS?

This Question to Be Settled at the Athletic Park Today.

Will this be the last day of the present Oahu league series? That is the question that is agitating the minds of the fans. If, by any chance, the Japs should lose to the Boers this afternoon in the first game at the Athletic Park, and if the Marines should slip it to the Dragonets, then there will have to be one more day's play.

Nobody can say whether this concatenation of circumstances will come around or not. Up to the present time the Boers have shown very little of their great form they had with them during the first part of the first series. They lack George Clark, Shephard and some other good ones, and have not been doing very well.

But there is no reason why they should not take a lurch to themselves today and slip something to the Japs. If they do, then the Marines will go into the second game with great vigor in order to make their chance at the championship more certain than ever.

The Japs will have their usual double battery—Royalty and Jack Flores, and "Whoopie" and Brito at the receiving end. That is a hard combination to beat.

Boers May Spring Surprise. The Boers have already sprung a surprise or two on the fans. They won one game in great style with a team that, on paper, looked like a joke. But they managed to swat the ball all over the field and came out on the long end with large grins on their faces.

It is hard to make any forecast of the second game. Judging by the game that the Dragonets put up against the Japs last Sunday, they should be able to do something with the giddy Half-wets. Cheebys was not playing football yesterday. He was not even running at the track meet. He took a rest and looked on with a wide smile on his face. He should be able to do great work with the big mitt today.

Hate to Loose Too Early.

In spite of the big lead that the Japs have in the series, there is plenty of excitement over today's games. Perhaps most of the fans hope the Japs will win so that the great St. Louis-Jap series can be started all the sooner.

But both games will be fought out for all they are worth. Going down to an ignominious defeat before the end of a series, is not to the liking of any of the teams, and both the Boers and Marines may be depended on to do what they can, with the Dragonets working their heads off to keep the Marines from getting a paw on the championship.

REAL ESTATE SELLS HIGH

Property Disposed of at Public Auction Yesterday Finds Brisk Demand.

Real estate sold at public auction yesterday noon brought unexpectedly good prices—not more than the property was worth but good prices in view of the apathy that has been manifested in the real estate market during the past several weeks.

The Alakea House, on Alakea street, was sold by J. F. Morgan, at the office of J. F. Morgan. There was a large crowd present and the bidding on the property was lively. It was finally bought in by the Bank of Hawaii, which held the mortgage under which the property was being sold. The price paid was $8000.

A lot and cottages on South street were also sold, under foreclosure of the same mortgage. The bidding on these was even livelier than on the Alakea House. Antonio Pereira Lindo was the successful bidder, the price he paid being $2850.

Immediately following the foreclosure sale, there was an administrator's sale in front of the Judiciary building. Mr. Swasburg being the auctioneer in that case, also. The property sold was that of Carlissa M. Davis, deceased. A parcel of land at Hamohua, Moanahua, which is surrounded by S. M. Damon's land, caused some lively bidding. It was finally bought by Mr. Damon for $800, though the first bid was only $250.

Another piece was a lot on Liliha street, on which is a poi factory and a store. It was knocked down to Mr. Chamberlain for $1580.

in the mix-up. As he was thrown his head thumped that of Police Officer Keawe, rendering the latter insensible. One of the two trustees in the wagon was also hurt.

That the accident was not much more serious is due to the presence of mind of Stewart, who, when he saw that there was bound to be a collision between the wagon and the car, swung the former so as to make the blow a glancing one.

The police wagon was not damaged, except for the breaking of the whiffletree.

It was reported at the Queen's Hospital last night that Kaluhimoku was in a very critical condition. It seems doubtful whether or not he will recover.
